COUNCIL PLANS TO SELL SES BUILDING

It has come to attention of the Dunolly SES members and volunteers that the Central Goldfields Shire Council has plans to sell the facility at 51 Broadway in Dunolly (the SES shed). This decision was made some weeks ago in a meeting which Bob Henderson, Flynn ward councillor, could not attend due to illness.

What is unmistakeably clear is that council have at no time consulted with the Dunolly SES, NW Region SES or VicSES head office, nor with the residents of Dunolly. In fact SES head office, as recently as May this year, received written assurance that SES had long term tenure of the site. However I have been told that such written assurances do not necessarily indicate a firm position but only general support for the idea.

No SES branch owns or rent their premises, these are lent to the SES for as long as SES needs the building. This is the way it is in all councils across Victoria at least. The councils receive valuable emergency volunteer work as well as relief of some work that they would be required to do themselves.

In 2012 Dunolly SES refurbished and extended their facilities with the understanding and written assurance that they had long term tenure of the site. The local unit contributed $51,000 which they had raised, most of that money coming from the local community. The State Government contributed $119,000 towards the work.

The sale of the property would net the CGSC a very big return at the cost of Dunolly volunteers’ work, Dunolly residents’ contributions and the State Government. It will leave Dunolly and district isolated and without an SES unit during times of flood and storm. A quick response time during floods is necessary in this area as we are at the top of a catchment and so have little warning when flooding is going to occur. As in the case of the 2011 floods, Dunolly was not accessible from Maryborough, the next closest SES unit. Several times in the last three years, trees have fallen and entirely blocked roads in the area. Dunolly would have to wait for the council front loaders to arrive to restore means of access in these cases.

The Dunolly unit has responded to 200 local call outs for help during the past 3 years as well as the 2011 floods.

Another flick on the ear for young Kyrgios – will he never wake up to himself?

Aren’t we in the country overjoyed that travellers in the tunnels in Melbourne can yak away on their mobiles and use the internet? I reckon the people in the fires in Lancefield would have been happy to have had the same service – as would all the dwellers in black spots.

Food tip: I was cooking spuds for a potato salad the other day. I only had dried mint and didn’t want to use it as I would have for too much mint on the potatoes. The inspiration struck I searched in the third drawer from the top and found the tea infuser, half filled it with mint, put it in the saucepan and cooked the potatoes. Result – mint flavoured spuds for the salad without the masses of little bits of green. My gran taught me this many years ago, when I was a little girl, and for some reason it leaked into my brain again the other day.

A mother was walking along a pier at the beach with her very bright nine year old son. A teenaged lad was fishing and the young lad stood watching. Suddenly he ran back to his mother obviously upset. He told his mother “That half-fledged specimen of humanity engaged in piscatorial exercise has had the effrontery to suggest to me that I am of Capricornian ancestry”.

“Good heavens, what did he say to you?”

“Hello kid,” the boy replied.

In addition we are a ‘go to’ unit for helping neighbouring areas in searches (two in the past two months), deployments to other states and are often at community events lending a hand. Last week in a letter I wrote about the picnic, I mentioned that this council’s prior performance shows that they are not interested in promoting Dunolly as a place to live and work. I go further now and say that the disdain with which the local council has treated the residents of Dunolly and district by not even consulting with them and making this decision when their local representative was not in attendance is reprehensible. The decision is not visible in any council meeting minutes either. It is very reminiscent of the plan in 2013 to replace our mobile library (average of 82 users per week) with a far poorer delivery service from Maryborough library, fancifully named a “pop up library van” or “guerrilla library” service. This decision was done and dusted before the Dunolly community were notified about it. Thankfully it was reversed in view of the strong opposition by the town.

According to the Central Goldfields Shire Council website: Council prides itself on its governance practices and aims to:

- provide for community confidence in Council and its decision making processes
- lead to better, more robust and transparent decisions
- facilitate compliance with legislative responsibilities
- provide an ethical basis for governance.

Well, as I see it they fail in points 1,2 and 4. The above is a blatant lie; this council does not adhere to all of their stated aims. Such arrogance in the corporate world inevitably leads to decreased sales and the resultant sacking of the management - unless the company is in the position of holding a monopoly. Council so often wants business and customers (residents) to abide by their rules; why shouldn’t they be held to account as in the real world?

Costa Di Biase

Dear Cr Bob Henderson,

Well done Welcome Record for the timely publishing of the article “Drowning Doesn’t Look Like Drowning,” submitted by Costa Di Biase. The article brought back a vivid memory for me from long ago.

One afternoon, more that forty years ago, our youngest son, Peter, was playing in a friend’s pool with his older brothers. I was sitting only eight metres away chatting and drinking coffee and watching. I thought, the children in the water. Suddenly there was a yell from the pool. Everyone jumped up and raced to the edge of the pool. There was our eldest son holding a silent Peter above the water. Shocked I realised that I had been watching a near drowning. Fortunately Peter sustained no permanent damage and is himself a loving father of three.

Drowning is a silent killer. Parents please learn from my horrid experience and WATCH your children near water at all times.

FOOD AND WINE GROUP
We are looking at the possibility of a food and wine group for the area. What form that would take would be in the hands of those interested.
Some suggestions are:
- Take your chosen wine and a plate to a venue and compare the wines.
- Dine in different homes with a course at each home – wines could be taken or provided by host.
- Dine at restaurants or other venues with all provided.
- A mix of whatever is listed as a further suggestion.
Please give me a ring on 0439 029 989 if you have any ideas on the subject and/or would like to have a chat and/or help organise a get together to make a start. John Moir

HIGHLY COMMENDED
The Welcome Record was highly commended during an awards dinner last week.
The Community Newspapers Association of Victoria (CNAV) held their annual conference in Mooroolbark and The Welcome Record entered four award categories including the one for best newspaper.
Very few of the community papers that were finalists in the awards are published weekly; most are published monthly or bi-monthly. They are also situated in suburban areas or large towns and publish many more copies than The Welcome Record.
The two editors from The Welcome Record who attended the conference, although disappointed at not achieving an award, were very encouraged by the judge’s commendation.
During the conference, workshops were held on photography, writing and community involvement plus the awards dinner in the evening making it a very busy and informative couple of days. However, both the editors thought that the exchange of ideas with volunteers from other community papers was by far the most enjoyable and valuable part of the weekend.

LANCEFIELD-COBAW FIRE INVESTIGATION
The independent investigation into the Lancefield-Cobaw fire in Central Victoria began this week, with the community invited to provide input. Western Australian Office of Bushfire Risk Management Director Murray Carter is leading the investigation and said the team would examine all aspects of the planned burn including resourcing, weather conditions, decision making and communications.
Mr Carter has 28 years of operational bushfire and emergency management experience with a strong focus on prescribed burning. “Over the next three weeks the investigation team will be talking to community members, departmental staff who conducted the planned burn and the Country Fire Authority to determine the facts of what happened,” Mr Carter said. “We are focused on delivering a report on the events and activities in the lead-up to the fire that will give the community the answers it needs in a timely manner.”
Community members can contribute to the investigation by emailing the investigation team at obrm@dfes.wa.gov.au or providing written information to Vivien Philpotts at the Lancefield Neighbourhood House.
Submissions should address the Terms of Reference of the investigation, which are available, along with the scope of the investigation at delwp.vic.gov.au/fire-emergencies/lancefield
The investigation team includes representatives from a range of agencies including:
- Murray Carter from the Office of Bushfire Risk Management in Western Australia
- Trevor Howard from the Department of Parks and Wildlife in Western Australia
- Kevin Haylock from Sandalwest Forest Management in Western Australia
- Jo Richards from Parks Victoria; and
- Vivien Philpotts from the Lancefield Neighbourhood House
All findings from the independent investigation will be made available to the public.

WA Dept Fire & Emergency Services
Thank you Bob Henderson for coming and chairing our Annual meeting and all our committee for attending. This is the first year with our new printer and it has been a year of many adjustments to this wonderful new machine. I am sure our printers have not always called it wonderful or the editors, but it has been a big learning curve for us all.

In October last year we made a decision to give the title of Office Manager to Coral Christensen. This job she has done throughout the year with great achievement. Thank you Coral for taking this job on for it is not easy. Also Coral went to the Community Newspaper Association of Victoria (CNAV) conference which by her report she found very interesting and she is going again this year with Fay Arnold. I think everyone of the committee should do this and I urge all members to go in turn if you can. As you know we help with the payment of this with two nights' accommodation if you have far to go and petrol is paid by The Welcome Record.

In December Graeme and Janet Ray resigned as they were moving to family in Sydney. So an adjustment was needed as to who would replace them. Monika Thumerer has now joined our band of workers and has stepped in to help with the printing of the paper with Jan Brock and Teresa Milne.

Our Christmas party in December went very well at the Royal Hotel before it closed. And we have decided to go to the “Golden Grain” this year.

Katie Lovel was welcomed to our April meeting and discussed how better to promote our Dunolly Primary School. This I think we have done with a page for the children and pictures of them in nearly every paper. We have tried to promote the sporting clubs too and with the colour page on the back as well as the front we have had some great sporting pictures which have enhanced our paper. It was decided to rotate gardening, cookery and poetry pages on a monthly basis. We also introduced a craft page

This year we submitted an issue of one of our books, as well as some individual articles and photographs, in six categories for the CNAV Awards which were held at the conference. Coral and Faye have just come back from the CNAV conference with the news we did not win any awards, however, the issue we submitted in the Best Newspaper category did get a high commendation from the judge. Well there is always next year!

Shane Henderson helped us out while Faye Arnold was away and this was appreciated. She said she would always try and be there for us if we needed her. Monika Thumerer has joined our committee. It is wonderful to get new support and we wish her a productive time with us.

Viatek has been good to us and has helped us all along the way with the new printer, but we have had concern about supplies of toner not being met on time.

Printing issues with laptop from QuickBooks program has risen after we installed Windows 10. All these problems come just to keep us on our mettle. Over all we have had a good year with the paper I think. We would like more input from our readers but every country paper has this problem. Stories are out there but it is very hard to find people to put pen to paper or tell them to us.

We are lucky to have many regular people who compile stories for us nearly every week. Where would we be without them? A big thank you to every one of them.

I am very proud of this paper. We are a small town newspaper but we must always look about us and think how we can make it better. We cannot think we are great and sit back on our heels.

I must thank you all for all the support you have given me throughout the year and without every one of you this paper would not get out every week as it does. It is sad when one of us has to leave. This is happening to Jean Anderson who has put a lot into this paper over the years. We wish her well as she makes plans to move interstate. We will miss her very much.

God bless you all and good luck for the next year and may we all continue to enjoy working together.

CHAUNCY COTTAGE

As an interested observer, I went along to the auction of Chauncy Cottage on Saturday morning. This, as far as I know, is the oldest house in Dunolly, built in 1858. I was friendly with a girl whose family lived there in the 1950’s and would occasionally call in after walking home from school with her. I always loved the place, perched on that hill overlooking the Dunolly Township. It has an air about it, and I was saddened to see it sitting there empty for years. However, I’m pleased to say that it’s not only been sold, but the new owners from Daisy Hill are actually going to live in it, and do it up. I couldn’t be happier as the cottage will have a new lease on life and will finally shed that lonely neglected air. Congratulations to the new owners. Well done!

THE SAVOY OPERA COMPANY PRESENTS
GILBERT & SULLIVAN’S YEOMEN OF THE GUARD

This October, Melbourne’s premier Gilbert & Sullivan Company, Savoy Opera Company Inc., are bringing The Yeomen of the Guard to the Dunolly Town Hall. Set in the Tower of London during the reign of Henry VIII, The Yeomen of the Guard is perhaps Gilbert & Sullivan’s darkest, and most emotionally engaging opera. The show bounds along, seamlessly and honestly traversing moments of rollicking good fun to moments of pathos and reflection.

A fun and very human show, its score features many of the legendary Duo’s popular songs, including Were I Thy Bride, Is Life a Boon? and Tis Done, I am a Bride.

With its roots in the mid-nineteenth century English opera tradition, The Yeomen of the Guard is an integrated hybrid of operetta and romantic opera that combines the sparkling essence of previous Savoy successes with heightened drama and emotion. Critics consider the score to be Sullivan’s finest, and Gilbert’s trademark satire and topsy-turvy plot complications do not disappoint. This being said, the Yeomen of the Guard is Gilbert & Sullivan’s most sober work, with their usual ebullient silliness toned down, and with an emotionally complex resolution.

The cast is headed by a collection young, passionate singers and Savoy Veterans, bringing together a wealth of experience and love of the Gilbert & Sullivan tradition. The company itself has been active under various names since 1943 and prides itself on taking high calibre productions of the works of Gilbert & Sullivan to Eastern Melbourne, Lilydale, Point Lonsdale, Portarlington, Queenscliff, Barwon Heads, Ballarat & Dunolly. The company has nurtured many singers who have gone on to have highly successful careers, including Marie Collier, Lian Keegan, Gregory Dempsey and Eileen Hannan.

BEAUTY TIPS
As Joyce visibly relaxed under Lynda’s skillful fingers, while having a facial last Wednesday evening at the Dunolly Neighbourhood Centre, the rest of us felt a little envious. As she worked, Lynda gave a running commentary about the different techniques she was using and why, and what products could be used and why. After spending a number of years working as a day spa therapist at many resorts in Queensland, Lynda had a number of interesting and amusing stories to tell as well. She talked her way through manicures, pedicures and full body wraps and told us about the many uses of Sorbolene, oils, salt and sugar. Macadamia, olive and coconut oils are suitable to be used on the skin. But it is macadamia oil which most closely resembles the natural oils in our skin, Lynda said. Cleansing, exfoliating and then moisturizing is a great way to rejuvenate the skin and pamper yourself. We are all worth a little pamper. Lynda had quite a range of essences to perfume things with, as well as rose petals, lavender and other natural ingredients.

Lynda gave all those present a little bag of goodies to take home. There was a little worry there might not be enough bags for everyone as more people than expected had turned up But somehow it turned out alright, and there were little perfumed pots of cream and information sheets for everyone as well. As everyone opened their perfumed creams, they gave off the most delicious aromas. The Dunolly Neighbourhood Centre kitchen has never smelt so good.

On Friday 13 November the Dunolly Neighbourhood Centre will be holding their “Black Cat Clothes Swap Evening” details of which are in the Neighbourhood Centre column in The Welcome Record. Bookings are essential for this fun evening.

GOLDFIELDS SUSTAINABILITY GROUP

Next Saturday, 24 October at 2.00pm the Goldfields Sustainability Group event participants have the opportunity to make themselves a polystyrene wicking planter box.

Keeping plants alive over summer in pots can be hard work but a wicking planter box can help avoid the risk of a pot drying out. Capillary action keeps soil at the root zone constantly moist by drawing water up from a reservoir at the base of the box.

Please bring a polystyrene box if you can. Soil, scoria, hessian/weed mat etc will be provided for $5.00. Information about other types of wicking gardens will be shared. Bring along your ideas, success and not so successful stories regarding making wicking gardens for a discussion.

Moonee Valley City Council have information about wicking gardens if you wish to do some pre-reading: http://mvcc.vic.gov.au/for-residents/environment-programs/my-smart-garden/smart-gardening-resources.aspx Look for the heading “Self-watering (wicking) planter boxes”

The venue will be the current community garden site on the Maryborough Salvation Army grounds, behind the Men’s shed in Newton Street Maryborough. Please bring a plate of afternoon tea to share.

STANDING IN THE DRIZZLE
I was standing in the drizzle
And I thought it was grand
Gazing out across the paddocks
At the wet and muddy land
Then I started into thinking
Of a place I know so well
Where paddocks made of sugar grass
And fairy floss the dell
Each river was of lemonade
The trees were chocolate bars
And liquorice straps our roads
And smarties were the stars
Each flower was a lollypop
All clouds were of ice-cream
And every grain of wheat I saw
Were tic-tacs oh supreme
The drizzle that I stood in
Was sarsaparilla and ginger beer
And all my loved ones with me
Stood with me to cheer.

DON'T YOU CALL ME MATE
Say! let us fight for each human's right
Now we fight for some others' mistake
And as long as our conscience is quelled tonight
For the oil thirst to slake
What if the bombs wreck cities street
From the terrors of suicide
We'll scatter the terrorists manic beat
For our country we have pride
Whatever we do in our country towns
Or in our cities of moral sin
It's good we see the Mallee sundowns
We can't let this evil win
Where's our valiant heroes now?
In some foreign land they're dead
And what of the ones crippled in minds
Whose life is maimed and fled
Say! hush your voice tis sorrow's hour
That carries across the hills
Yet in the pain sufferer's wards
Are the glorious little daffodils
Will we only know of terrorist's bombs
Is fear to be served on our human plate
Some fools to say it's politically correct
Well don't you call me mate.

DUNOLLY LIONS UP AND ROARING

The Lions Club of Maryborough is proud to announce the formation of its first branch club - the Dunolly District Branch Club of Maryborough Lions.

This new branch club was formed with nine new members, on Tuesday 6 October at the combined Maryborough and Carisbrook Lions Club District Governor’s Dinner.

Maryborough Lions member Katinka Hilder has worked over the past 18 months to get the Dunolly branch up and running. Her inspiration behind her dream is her late father-in-law Tom Hilder, who was the original Charter President of the Dunolly Lions Club back in 1974 before it went into recess several years later.

Although starting small in number at this early stage, the new Lions Club members are keen and enthusiastic to get started on fundraising to serve their community. Their first project is a stall to be held regularly at the local Dunolly Sunday Market. They also have access to a shop premises at 85 Broadway between now and Christmas, and intend to sell second-hand books and Lions Christmas cakes and slices, a couple of afternoons a week.

It is anticipated that several more members will be inducted next month at an evening to be held at the Maryborough Lions Club rooms. When the required number of 20 members is inducted, a special Charter Dinner night will be held to officially welcome the Dunolly District Lions Club to Lions International, to serve their community in their own right.

For membership information please contact Katinka Hilder at tinka-alan@bigpond.com or Phone 03 5460 5252

SPORTS AT DUNOLLY

[By Electric Telegraph] (from our OWN correspondent.)

Whilst searching that wonderful source of historic records Trove during the week, I discovered the following article from the Bendigo Advertiser dated 10 November 1883:

The annual sports in aid of the Dunolly hospital took place today. At an early hour this morning the streets were thronged with visitors from all parts of the district. Trains arriving from Castlemaine, St. Arnaud and Maryborough were completely packed, extra carriages being put on in lieu of specials. Great praise is due to our worthy stationmaster (Mr. Carpenter) and his staff for the very able and efficient manner in which he went about his work, not a hitch occurring, notwithstanding the extra strain they had to contend with. Vehicles of every description kept pouring into the town from the outlying districts. Broadway at the time of the procession was a complete human mass. At about ten o’clock firemen and others were to be seen wending their way to Market-square, where the procession started from. A start was made about eleven o’clock, the procession going down Broadway, headed by Marshal Ray (who was mounted on a magnificent animal), followed by the Dunolly Bicycle Club in fancy costume; then the Tarnagulla Brass Band, under Bandmaster Treloar; Loyal Prince Alfred Lodge of Oddfellows; the Dunolly “Blues,” headed by Colonel Wolfenden, and the Bealiba Rangers, in charge of Captain Potts, Eddington Light Horse, the Dunolly and Inglewood Fire Brigades, Maryborough Fire Brigades, costermongers, clowns and various juvenile lodges of Rechabites. The procession extended fully half a mile. After parading the main thoroughfares, it wended its way to the recreation reserve where the procession dispersed. An immense crowd of people followed the procession, all dressed in holiday attire. Not a single accident occurred during the progress of the procession. At twelve o’clock a start was made to get through the various athletic events, which caused a deal of interest to the masculine gender. The hons, J. Bell, G. Young, J. M. Grant and T. Langdon were on the ground and acted as judges. The rain marred the proceedings during the afternoon. There were about 2,000 persons on the ground.’

The races reported on included - the Sheffield Handicap, the Dunolly Bicycle Club race, a Fireman’s race, an open Bicycle race, an Obstacle race and a Handicap Flat race. Unfortunately rain lead to the abandonment of the planned ‘Promenade Concert’ at night.

The article gives us a glimpse into a Dunolly long past, and paints a very different picture of the town and its residents. I wonder what the holiday attire looked like in 1883? Not shorts and thongs, I’m guessing. I imagine women in their Sunday best, long dresses dragging in the dust and mud perhaps with parasols to shade their delicate complexions! The sporting activities seem to have only included the male gender. I can imagine the women being relegated to admiring spectators oohing and aahing over the athletic attire and bodies of their menfolk! I wonder how many of them were just itching to throw aside their long dresses and give the men a run for their money on the track!

The report pushes the history of the Dunolly Bicycle Club back beyond the previously believed 120 years. Perhaps the present day cycling club will have to recreate the fancy dress parade down Broadway at some stage. It also raises some interesting questions - Does anyone know who Marshal Ray was and what did his duties as Marshal involve, and exactly what kind of ‘magnificent animal’ was he mounted on? Did he wear a star badge like in the Wild West movies? Who were the Dunolly Blues? And are the Oozin Blues a modern day reincarnation?

The Bealiba Rangers sound like an intrepid lot, not to mention the lodge full of Oddfellows! As for the junior Rechabites.....???

Some things from the past have definitely been lost in the mists of time. However it is clear that a good time was had by all and it is great to see that our now much smaller town can still put on a good show, swapping athletic prowess for artistic talent on the stage. The crowds attending the events of the Gilbert and Sullivan Festival weekend in 2015 may have been considerably less than in 1883 but enthusiasm and enjoyment for community events is still alive and well in Dunolly. A big ‘well done’ must go to the organisers of the festival and the many participants involved.

As for the rain - a repeat performance of that would be very welcome!

‘THE WAYWARD LEUNIG’ – MICHAEL LEUNIG IN CONVERSATION

Bendigo Library is delighted to present an evening with Michael Leunig to celebrate the release of his new book, ‘The Wayward Leunig: Cartoons That Wandered Off’. This special event will be held on Friday 13 November at The Capital. Leunig will spend an hour in conversation with Dr Susan Gillett, Senior Lecturer in Creative Writing at La Trobe University in Bendigo.

Signed copies of ‘The Wayward Leunig: Cartoons That Wandered Off’ will be available for purchase on the night, a perfect Christmas gift opportunity.

Bendigo Library Adult Programs Coordinator, Sue Mooney, says that the library is very excited to be able to give the community the opportunity to see Michael Leunig in person.

“Leunig is an Australian icon who has been on the scene for over forty years. Whilst he is perhaps most famous for his cartoons in major Australian newspapers, he is also renowned for his political and cultural flavoured commentary,” says Ms Mooney.

“Leunig is also a writer, painter, philosopher and poet, and we are very much looking forward to what promises to be a very insightful conversation with Susan Gillett.”

The event is free, is hosted by Bendigo Library, and will be held at The Capital.

Bookings are essential and can be made online via: www.ncgrl.vic.gov.au/leunig
MOBILE LIBRARY IS A GREAT PLACE TO CONNECT

It came as some surprise to me to discover this week that just one in five residents within our municipality visit the wonderful mobile library which regularly rolls into town. The Goldfields Library Corporation is considering ways to increase membership rates and inclusion opportunities with individuals and groups within our community.

A fantastic example of this model in action is the relationship building and resource sharing already taking place with Wedderburn Secondary College and community houses.

These partnerships see some of the youngest and oldest within our local towns and farming areas coming together to enjoy a host of recreational and learning opportunities.

If you’re not a big reader and presumed the mobile library service isn’t for you, think again because libraries have evolved. A range of e-library services and community programs operate under the library umbrella and our mobile library is no exception.

Joining and regularly using the mobile library is a positive source of recreational activity and a good way to keep up to date with the ever changing world of technology.

If you’re already an avid mobile library user, why not consider taking a friend, neighbour or family member along next time. You never know where it will lead!

For further information on the mobile library and when it is scheduled to roll into a town near you, visit www.ncgrl.vic.gov.au or phone 5449 2790.

SMALL BUSINESS CONSULTANT

At our last meeting of the DDI it was discussed as to how we could help new business or current businesses to receive some extra assistance. Earlier this year we had a very successful visit by the caravan and a business consultant that enabled local people to have a chat with follow up with the business consultant.

A number of people missed out so it was suggested we approach the Department of Small Business Victoria to have the caravan and consultant return.

If you would like to meet with these folk again or you missed out previously or were thinking of starting a small business, please give me a ring and if we have a reasonable number interested we will negotiate a return visit.

NEW PLASTIC FISHING LICENCES

Recreational anglers in Western Victoria who buy a one or three-year Victorian fishing licence online will receive a plastic licence in the mail under new arrangements that will commence on 1 November, 2015.

The Member for Western Victoria, Jaala Pulford, said the new plastic format for longer term licences will be more durable and reduce the need for anglers to replace water damaged, or worn, paper licences.

Ms Pulford said licence retailers, including bait and tackle shops, will still sell one and three-year fishing licences, and the shorter two-day and 28-day options, however all four formats will remain paper-based when bought over the counter.

“This new online option provides anglers in Western Victoria with a choice about their preferred licence format and should reduce the burden on retailers, especially during peak summer holiday periods,” Ms Pulford said.

“Plastic licences will arrive in the mail within seven days of purchase and an emailed equivalent will provide immediate coverage so anglers can fish immediately,” she said.

Around 40 per cent of Victorian recreational fishing licences are purchased online, with the increasing use of smartphones making it a convenient option for many anglers.

Ms Pulford said all revenue from the sale of recreational fishing licences continue to support projects that improve fishing opportunities such as stocking, fish habitat improvement and better access and facilities.

Recreational fishing currently contributes $2.3 billion to our social and economic well-being.

Ms Pulford said the Andrews Government’s Target One Million plan aims to get more people fishing, more often. “Under the plan, fish stocking will increase from three to five million fish per year, attracting more visitors to our regions for new fishing opportunities, boosting local economies and helping businesses grow and create jobs,” she said.

“It will also grow participation to one million anglers by 2020, strengthen angling club membership and provide the Better Fishing Fund to develop new recreational fishing reefs, improve boat launching facilities and support better access to waterways,” Ms Pulford said.

“The new plastic fishing licence offers keen anglers the choice of buying a more durable format that will better cope with moisture prone environments such as tackle boxes and aboard vessels,” she said.

Mobility Scooters - Know the rules
Did you know that if you use a motorised mobility device (electric wheelchair, mobility scooters and buggies), that you must obey the same road rules as pedestrians?
The rules for pedestrians are included in the Road Safety Road Rules 2009. Under the road rules pedestrians are people:
• on foot
• on wheeled devices such as skateboards, rollerblades, wheelchairs and motorised mobility devices
• pushing a bicycle.
Rules for pedestrians
Pedestrians are not allowed to:
• cross the road if they are facing an amber or red traffic or pedestrian light
• cross the road within 20 metres of a pedestrian crossing - they must use the crossing
• get out of a moving vehicle
• cross a railway level crossing when it is not allowed
• cause a traffic hazard by moving into the path of a driver
• walk along, or fail to give way when crossing, a path which is for bicycles and wheeled devices (a path showing a 'Bicycle lane' sign).
Pedestrians must:
• use the shortest or most direct way to cross a road
• cross to the nearest edge of the road after getting off a tram
• obey traffic instructions from a police officer
• give way to vehicles at roundabouts
• obey a 'no pedestrian' sign.
• If there is no footpath or nature strip, you may need to travel on the road. If so, you must travel on the other side of the road facing oncoming traffic.

Penalties
There are penalties for pedestrians and drivers who break these rules.
The Australian Competition & Consumer Commission has produced a very helpful brochure on the use of mobility scooters which is available to download at www.accc.gov.au/publications/help-cut-mobility-scooter-accidents.
Further information is also available from Council’s Home and Community Care department and VicRoads.

SILVER TRAY TOURNAMENT
On Friday 23 October the Ladies Silver Tray tournament will be played at Dunolly with 16 teams taking part, including Dunolly teams, 10.00am start. The tournament has run since 1959 (then by the Maryborough District Bowls Ladies Association) and Dunolly has won the tray the last two years, as well as in 2005/06, 2004/05 and 1986/87.

Once again this week’s competition was pairs. Some of our men showed their supremacy once again. Well played Sam Whitehead and Bill Best with three wins you were undeniably the best pair of the night. We all sent our best wishes Bill for a successful operation and a speedy recovery. The last game in November will see the end of the season’s competition.

DUNOLLY DOGS

Dogs have a powerful impact on our lives both physically and emotionally. Canine behaviourist and dog trainer, Susan Day, knows this all too well. Having left a big dog training centre behind in Melbourne, Susan moved to Dunolly last year and has just started conducting lessons.

Susan has over ten year’s experience training dogs in obedience and agility classes, as well as those with behavioural issues. Susan only advocates gentle, positive training and does not advocate hitting dogs or using choker chains.

Research has shown that training your dog improves its intelligence, makes it more confident and relaxed and builds a trusting, meaningful relationship with its owner. Training your dog will help decrease antisocial behaviour and decrease unnecessary vet visits.

A trained dog is a happy, healthy dog!

Classes are held once a week on Sunday afternoons at the appropriately named Barkley Street. Dogs are assessed on their individual needs. Even if your dog has some training, these classes offer important socialization in a fun, relaxed environment.

Everyone is welcome regardless of the age of your dog. The cost is $5 per dog. Please call 0421 582 067 for more information.
