The Central Goldfields Shire Administrators' Listening Post, which was held by the BBQ area, at the Gordon Gardens in Dunolly on Tuesday 20th November.

Philip Ashton, who just happened to have his new 360 degree camera in his pocket, took this intriguing photo.

There was lively discussion ranging from Refugee Welcome status to availability of compost.

Among interested parties who attended were - Jan Brock, Jenny Scott, Mr. Jan Stephenson, Joan Ansell, Philip and Anna Ashton, Rachel Buckley and Judy Meldrum

The administrators, Noel Harvey, Karen Douglas and Hugh Delahunty are visiting towns across the municipality for 'meet and chat' listening post sessions.

ROSIE'S RAMBLE

Dan Andrews is back ! It must be election time. For most of the time he is Daniel, but come elections the more casual Dan appears, chucking hay bales off utes and generally being more of a people person.

I have acquired a few pages of the Age for Tuesday, 3rd of December 1974 when it was the big paper, needing the whole kitchen table space to open it fully. The house prices are very interesting - posh suburb prices are low compared to now, but so are wages. You could have rented a 3 bedroom flat in South Yarra for $32 a week.

If anyone has a 1974 Holden Statesman Caprice and would like the original full page advertisement for it, they are welcome. Contact the Welcome Record, and it is yours.

Heard on the news the other day that the council in Port Augusta decided to retrieve the shopping trolleys that had been pushed off the end of the pier over the years as they were regarded as a danger to those who dived off it. I'm surprised there was room in the water for divers as some 500 trolleys were dragged out at a cost of $15,000 to the council. Some had been there so long that they had their own colonies of creatures attached.

On ABC's Australia Wide radio program there was a report of a male alpaca attacking two women near Cloncurry. He bailed them up on their verandah, knocked one down and bit the other. Fortunately a neighbour heard them screaming and called the police. Two turned up and managed to wrestle the beast to the ground then "frog-marched" it back to its paddock. It has since been sent into exile. Goes to show — be careful of male alpacas in the Spring time.

Speaking of my beloved ABC, (I am not a left-leaning radical — just enjoy ad-free viewing) it is getting a bit like a bad case of indigestion —too many repeats.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor

They came back

Some issues ago I had cause to write of the riveting performance the Dunolly Ukulele Group put on for us at the Tarnagulla Senior Citizens' Group.

But we were anxious to have them back – and so it was. Again we had song sheets issued to us and, once again, we joined in the singing.

The repertoire was varied, as it had been on the first occasion the Group had visited us. The songs varied from mellow to highly-animated – so that the 'Rivers of Babylon', rhythmically mellow (in which the interpolations by Carol were beautifully sung), contrasted with, say, 'Coney Island'. (Von happily boasted of having visited the Island some years ago).

There was an important difference from the Group's first visit – that is, important from our point of view. It was that, from time to time, Philip invited us to contribute rhythmically (apart from singing) to the afternoon's performance. This we did, with some make-shift 'instruments' to show an added dimension to our rhythmic skill. 'Shakers' consisted of rice in small plastic bottles, 'rhythm sticks' were the ends of old stool legs and a 'drum' was an outsized plastic container with lid intact.

One incident indicated how the Group's fame had spread. We were pleased to welcome newcomers to Tarnagulla, Harold and Nettie Shipston. (Harold is the son of long-time Tarnagulla resident, Jean Shipston). They were delighted to attend the performance. Harold, as readers of the Welcome Record will know, is a poet, but he is also a self-taught guitarist and, in his words, 'cannot wait to join the Group'. Nettie is a clarinettist. They are busy with house renovations at present and return to Queensland from time to time – so their musicianship must be put on hold at the moment.

When our committee prepares our 2019 Agenda, the readers of this piece will, I am sure, be able to predict one item to be included on it.

Joan Ansell.

Travels with Cynthia

Recently I recalled old memories of our summer holidays in Bondi and that has triggered lots more. As the kids got older, when the oldest was in her early teens and the other two not far behind, they were able to walk to the beach on their own and Nana and I would join them after the household chores. It seems that people who live close to beaches do not frequent them very often, whereas the hordes of beachgoers were generally visitors or people from inner Sydney. As a result Nana saw the beach in a different light. We used to set up our umbrella on the north side and gradually became aware of a group of Jewish ladies who were there every day. As Bondi had a synagogue and certain requirements in the Jewish religion necessitated that the members walk to the Synagogue, there was a large population of Jewish people in Bondi. These ladies fascinated the kids. They were all around Nan's age and they had a very elaborate set up, with a little folding table under their big umbrella, and of course they brought their beach chairs. They had their food and drinks in a little icebox. However what fascinated the kids was their beachwear. They all had colourful bathing suits with skirts, two always wore a chiffon scarf, big hats and an amazing amount of jewellery, sparkling rings and bracelets which caught the sun. Those ladies were a great source of entertainment, just to admire their glamour. The kids said they had never seen any of the ladies go in the water.

There were usually some of the showgirls and strippers on the beach wearing their teeny weeny, polka dot bikinis, sunbaking just above our spot. One day there was a big scare; a small boy belonging to one of the girls had disappeared. People were alerted and lots of us went over the beach searching for the little fellow. Luckily, he was found trotting along the path on the other side of the stone wall separating the beach from the park. However, the strange thing was that the boy's mother didn't join in the search but just stayed sitting on the sand, applying sun cream and calling out to her friends to find him. Of course that shocked us, especially the kids, but I told them she was probably in shock.

COMPUTER & TECH TALK

I know we've spoken about it a number of times this year. In fact just last month, but its nearly Christmas and the SPAM is getting over-whelming along with the number of worried callers this month, so it's time for a final reminder for the year.

Business Email Compromises, which is a fancy term for the financial losses that can be incurred from phishing, are one of the most prominent forms of cybercrime. We talk about this all the time, I write about this all the time, you may remember:

- 1 One out of every 101 emails is malicious
- 2 70% of US employees don't know email security best practices
- 3 Criminals search LinkedIn to better tailor their emails to their targets
- 4 Criminals design their phishing emails to create a sense of urgency
- 5 Cybercrime will be a $1.5 trillion industry in 2018

Over the last three years BECs have accounted for over $5-billion in corporate losses. Some free pieces of advice on Email Security - Let's start with the basic email hygiene that all employees should be practising:

- The very first thing you should always check when opening an email is the sender's email address. Not the display name of the sender that appears, but the actual email address. It's easy to spoof a name, much harder to spoof an address.
- Unless you're 100% certain that an email attachment is trustworthy, don't open it. A malicious payload is one of the fastest ways to a security incident.
- Hover over any hyperlinks that are included in the email. If you are being instructed to go to a specific web page or log into a specific account, navigate there in the browser – independently from the link included in the email.

- Remember, no legitimate business or organization is going to ask you to supply personal information or financial data in an email. Nor will they ask you to transfer large sums of money. Ever.
- Finally, if you have a question about an email's authenticity, contact the sender directly. Either pick up the phone and call them, or walk into their office and just ask.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this article, please ring us on 54604006 or send an email to sales@microblastcomputers.com

ARE YOU FIRE READY?

If you haven't already prepared your property for the upcoming fire season now is the time.

No matter where you live in Central Goldfields Shire – whether you're in a town or on a farm – your property is likely to be at high to extreme bush or grass fire risk.

Right now, forecasts show that there is potential for an earlier and longer fire season in Victoria.

Now is the time to increase your understanding of the fire risk where you live, prepare your property, and talk to your loved ones about what you'll do to stay safe from fire.

Residents should also prepare their properties by:

Clearing undergrowth and fallen branches

Moving firewood away from the house

Cleaning leaves from gutters

Ensuring that grass is cut

BEALIBA CWA UPDATE

I'd like to start this month's update by thanking a few people. Firstly, a big thank you to Ian Proctor who donated the trailer load of wood which we raffled at the Dunolly Car Boot Market last week. Our thanks also go to Chris Newdick for donating the sausages for the sausage sizzle and to the folk at the Op Shop for all their assistance. Their generosity certainly boosted our bottom line. And to all those who bought tickets in the raffle – many thanks. The raffle was won by Leanne Mullan from Havelock.

The days are flying by and sometimes one wonders where the year has gone. Hard to believe that in a few weeks we will be celebrating Christmas and the branch will be in recess until February. Nonetheless, there is a lot happening in the run-up to the festive season.

We start off with the East Wimmera Xmas lunch will be held on Friday, the 30th November and then, on the following Friday, 7th December, Bealiba CWA will be hosting the annual Christmas Concert for local residents. Our compere, Betty Lovel, tells me there is a very varied programme and there should be something to please everyone. As well, there will be a raffle, lucky door prizes and a delicious afternoon tea. All in all it is a great afternoon's entertainment. So don't sit home – come and join us; everyone is most welcome.

Our final meeting for the year will culminate with a shared lunch and everyone is asked to bring either a salad or a sweet. Members are reminded that this year our Kris Kringle will be somewhat different. Instead of purchasing a gift, members are asked to either make/bake or grow something. It should be interesting to see how inventive we are.

Last meeting, Craft Leader Jan Murphy, showed members how to make Xmas decorations from the simplest of objects i.e. glass salt cellars and paper cones. It is amazing what can be achieved with a glue gun, ribbon, dried berries, felt and 'bling'. I can't speak for all but I was very pleased with what I achieved.

Jenny Lovel, the Juniors Leader, reports that the girls are doing very well. At their first 'meeting' they made biscuits and have started decorating their entry for the Wedderburn Xmas Festival. Often there isn't a lot to engage children in small rural communities so if there are any school-age girls locally who'd like to join they would be more than welcome.

Dates for the Diary:

Tuesday 27th November Avoca Xmas Dinner
$25 per head

Friday 30th November – Group Xmas Lunch at Wedderburn 12noon – cost $22

Tuesday 4th December – St.Arnaud Craft Day

Friday 7th December Xmas Concert at 1.30pm in the hall.

MAYORAL COLUMN

Honour to be re-elected

It was a great honour to be formally re-elected as Mayor of Loddon Shire Council at the Statutory Meeting on Friday 16 November.

I would like to thank my fellow Councillors for electing me to the role for a further 12 months. I look forward to working with Council, its staff and the community over the next year towards further improving the liveability of our Shire. This includes through advocacy to our governments (State and Federal), as well as continuing to work with our neighbouring councils towards common goals.

Did you know?

Since Loddon Shire Council was amalgamated in 1995, there have been 10 Mayors elected to the position (including myself).

The first Mayor of Loddon Shire Council was Councillor Frank Maher, who served three terms – 1997, 1998 and 2004.

POETRY

Grandma's Garden

In the stillness of the morning, warming in today's new sun.
I see the labours of your love,
your gift to every one.

The treasures that you planted,
and tended every day.
Your garden so enchanted,
a delight in every way.

A picture perfect paradise,
of tangled colours draped in dew.
The calming touch of nature, presented here by you.

In the quiet of the morning,
or the evening's setting sun.,
I see the labours of your love
Your gift to everyone

And though the world is changing, yes, few things stay the same.
You've, given us one constant this gift that bears your name.

This year has been a great year for the hub, with events of all kinds from recycled fashion to intimate afternoons with local authors. We also had our annual events - craft exhibition and the art show. These were well attended and we saw some quality entries. We have enjoyed some innovative workshops and we have big plans for 2019.

Coming soon to the Hub we have the Yupo paper (a Japanese synthetic paper that resists moisture) and Inks. This workshop is a fantastic exercise in letting go of traditional concepts of controlling your art medium and letting the inks and paper construct the art piece for you - a leap of faith, great fun for all. You don't have to be an artist. Workshop dates will be announced soon, they will be before Christmas.

Christmas Bunting will be hung before the big day, they will bring the seasonal spirit to our lovely little town.

Have Your Say

Central Goldfields Shire Council is inviting residents to have their say on the Gordon Gardens in Dunolly.

Your input will help inform an updated Master Plan for the precinct, which will outline areas of future development.

Bordered by Market, Thompson, Bull and Barkly streets, the Gordon Gardens features a number of existing building and community facilities.

Residents are invited to a drop-in community information session on Monday 3 December from 6 to 8pm to chat to Council Administrators and staff and provide feedback into what they'd like to see retained and developed in the future.

Residents can also provide feedback via an online survey. Visit www.centralgoldfields.vic.gov.au for more information or visit the Central Goldfields Shire Council Facebook page.

FIRE RESTRICTIONS

Fire restrictions in the Central Goldfields Shire commenced on Monday 12th November, 2018.

Residents are no longer able to burn off and some activities will require a permit.

For more information about fire restrictions, visit: www.cfa.vic.gov.au. *See page 2 for the Dunolly CFA meeting details.

CENTRAL GOLDFIELDS RATEPAYERS AND RESIDENTS ASSOC. INC.

Media report on CGR&RAI's public meeting held at the SES meeting room, Broadway, Dunolly on 13th November at 6pm.

This meeting was very well attended by the supportive community of Dunolly and surrounds - about 30 attended

The meeting commenced at 6pm with the President Wayne McKail giving a presentation on the reasons and direction the Committee had in mind for the Ratepayers and Residents group, and how every ratepayer and resident must take ownership, and we all move together to instil more control, transparency, accountability and pride into our community.

Please be aware, you do not have to be a member to ask for assistance. We are for all of the community. But with us being a not for profit organization, any donation or membership is extremely welcome.

After the initial presentation we continued with a report on the CGR&RAI's meeting with our CEO, Lucy Roffey and one of her team on Wednesday 7th November, 2018. A brief update on this meeting is available on our Facebook page, Central Goldfields Ratepayers & Residents Assn Inc., or by emailing us on cgoldratepayers@mail.com. Members will be provided with an in depth report. This report was presented by our treasurer, Michael Chainey, followed by a presentation, by Vice-president John Tully, on the policy of our parks being classified into World Heritage listing.

We then continued with setting the date and time for our next meeting, which will be held at the Community Hub In Maryborough on Tuesday 4th December, 2018 at 7.30pm.

At this final meeting for the year we shall report on our year to date, also on the issues raised. The AGM will be held at the Hub in 2019 on Tuesday 5th February, where all committee positions will be declared vacant and nominations will be called for to fill these positions.

The meeting was opened to question time from those attending. This was a very interesting segment. Some of the issues raised were:

1. Why is fortnightly curb-side rubbish pick up charged the same as weekly pick ups in other areas?
2. The council's policy on heritage and tourism.
3. Green waste policy on the offer of bags of compost/mulch to those who participate being not honoured? Why is the composting plant spending so much time down? This is lost funds to us the ratepayers.
4. Council not replying to correspondence or action after meetings with no follow up by council.
5. Notification on fire policy, local inspections and zones. Can information like this be added with rates notices. More notification. E.g. a council safety page listing all safety and services for the community, including emergency services phone numbers - poisons info, snake catcher etc.
6. Why the council refused to disclose to the public statements as to why the waste fees were increased?
7. Middle road Eddington and local road conditions.
8. Fire Safe place signage.
9. Hard rubbish collection.

The meeting closed at 7.00 pm.

Many thanks to the community support from Dunolly, the community and all those who support our community moving forward.

Our next meeting will be on December 4th at the Maryborough Community Hub, Burns Street at 7.30 pm. All welcome. Wayne McKail President CGR&RAI

Probud News

At our November meeting I introduced a new member who loves Dunolly, believes it is the new Daylesford and is enjoying the mosaics group at The Hub. She was recently introduced to me by the sister of our long standing flying instructor from the seventies, who lives in Amphitheatre. They were in Dunolly for The Hub's great weekend display and Bethany asked her neighbour, my friend Pixie, if she'd join her for the visit. "Only if I can visit Carolyn", was her response. I was excited to catch up with Pixie and our enjoyable cuppa coffee and delicious tea cake from the bakery had the conversation rolling. I'd curried some eggs and mixed my favourite tuna salad just in case they'd stay for lunch. I tossed the green salad and we continued. What a lovely day. When Beth said her home was on the market and she was looking to buy in Dunolly. I 'grabbed' her for Probud - heeheehee! She came along in November and I was SO pleased. She'll be back for the December breakup with our Dunolly Ukulele group - looking good, eh?

Then, to really make my day our speakers, Bryan and Irene Jackson, gave us our excellent August talk on their ten years as First Responders with SES Emergency, spoke to us again on something very dear to my heart - Opals. Now, their lives are SO interesting that the club at question time asked them to join . . . I hope we can be so lucky. Any ideas of opal mining were blown away when a figure of $65,000 to get up and running with no guarantee of finding opals was posed. Their display and explanations of the whole procedure were fascinating and had us all enthused at their tenacity and adventure. Thank you both, it was excellent.

Maurie and I had flown to Andamooka in the seventies and eighties and loved Rudy and Inge Duke from the Bottle House.

So the memories for me rushed back. Both now sadly departed, but I have always kept in touch. Inge was Maurie's age and I'd remembered her birthdays and Christmases through their daughter Margot, postmistress, and heart and soul of Andamooka. Rudy's flying tales were endless. He built the aerodrome in Andamooka when the local strip used to flood. He had the aircraft radio on and was always there to greet us on arrival. The Monash Flying Club was huge, not with pilots of which there were many but enthusiasts for trips away, and our crayfish repasts! So pilots had no difficulty getting a passenger load for any trips they intended making.

Maurie asked Rudy if he still flew. The tale was told . . . During the war he was training and it was such a lovely day that he decided to do some aers going back to base. Now this was in an aircraft that looks as though it was made of corrugated iron but I cannot recall what they call it. He was spotted. From then on he had to jump out of the aircraft! No doubt like Maurie, that love of flying and aircraft never dies.

Thank goodness we had the superb instruction from Garth Harris, Pixie's brother, who even taught me to fly and thoroughly enjoy when Maurie insisted that he didn't want to die if he had a heart attack in the air. As I'd always be with him I had to at least learn how to land! What magnificent memories I have of our ten years owning our magnificent Beechcraft Debonair to see and enjoy Australia, ah! Plans were made for our December Break Up, February Dine Out and March Bus Trip. So 2019 should be great. If you are not a member, we would welcome you - Jan Watts is our Secretary on 5468 1731.

Central Goldfields Ratepayers and Residents Meeting

Last Tuesday 14th November, ratepayers and residents from Dunolly and surrounds were given the opportunity to attend a locally-held meeting of the Association, as part of a Shire-wide awareness campaign.

The meeting, held in the SES building, heard from President Wayne McKail, about the aims of the Association, after which the formal part of the meeting took place. Attendees were then invited, during question time, to put forward any concerns they may have, with a view to having them brought to the attention of the Council Administrators or staff. Several community members raised issues and discussion on a variety of matters then ensued. It appeared that the Dunolly attendees involved were pleased to have had a local forum in which to speak and eight new members joined the Association.

Even though members seemed pleased with the attendance at the Dunolly meeting, I am sure they would like to see an increased representation on future occasions. The next meeting is to be held at the Hub in Maryborough, on 4th December, at 7.30pm. Please watch the Welcome Record or the Association's Facebook page for further information.

Collections, Connections and Cocktails November Event

Last Saturday, we held the second of our fun events for collectors at Thrifty on Broadway. We never cease to be amazed at the variety of items that people bring in to show everyone! This month, we were fortunate to have Frances Clarke join us and show off her amazing and rare collection of shell items, in addition there were ornaments, historical documents and books, vintage decals, plus items from Deborah Halpern's late father's production line of pottery. The retro-style snacks, together with the mocktails, provided an extra attraction and are providing inspiration for future occasions. Our next event will be held on the third Saturday in January, so please watch this space. Look forward to seeing you there.

Cocktails Du Jour

A Pleasant Sunday Afternoon

Last Sunday (18/11) a group of music-lovers were invited to hear a band put together by Jan Stephenson. They were treated to great music and an introduction to a wonderfully talented vocalist, Eleanor. A small but appreciative audience, were spell-bound with her keyboard playing and singing. Jan and his group, The Groove Dudes, always give a fabulous concert; this one was no exception. The day was topped off, like the proverbial cherry on-top, with an abundance of delicious food created by Jan Brock and her friends.
